

My Top-Ten List

By:Kimberly ^_^

10 -Dive-Gordan Korman- In this book 4 kids go on a adventure to find a treasure in the Caribbean waters. I chose this book for number 10 because,although there is many twist and turns,there was not much intensity and the genre was not my type. But the author is pretty good.

9 -Worlds Dumbest Crooks-?- In this book the is a variety of scams crooks try to acomplish...but sonehow I don't think they covered up their tracks all that good! There is not a real point to this book but it is really funny and the stories are short enough so you can just stop anywhere!

8 -Night Of The Living Dummy-R.L Stine- In this book two girls who want to become a ventriloquist get a new dummy,they both fight over it...but the dummy has other plans then to be played with. This is a really good book for people who likes suspense. The only thing wrong is that the book should have a bit more details.

7 -James And The Giant Peach-Roald Dahl- A young boy and a couple of insects go on a BIG adventure on a peach...but unfortunately their road is not so smooth. This book is really funny and can bring a smile on anyone's face. I recomend this for a childrens night time story.

6 -Diary Of A Wimpy Kid-Jeff Kinley- Greg,the middle child of three,has gotten in a bit in a pickle. His mom has bought him a diary to keep track of his life in middle school,but Greg dosen't feel comfy with the fact that anyone could find it...at anytime. This book is good for a craving of humor and is a easy read.

5 -Off The Crossbar-David Skuy-A boy is new to a town and has joined the local Hockey team. But in his first pickup game,he shows off too much for the other boys likings. I love this book beacause of the genre and how intense it is.

4 -Shattered-Eric Walters- A man helps out in the local soup kitchen for homeless people,and while he is there he meets a former military soldier. There he realizes the hard life's if the homeless.I like this book becuase the genre is good. It could use better words.

3 -Monster Survival Guide-R.L Stine- In this book it show anything and everything you need to know about the horrors in horror land. Although it is interesting there is NO real point or meaning.

2 -Hunger Games-Susanne Collins- Katniss,a girl from district 12 is chose to play in the deadly annual Hunger Games. This is the best series of books love the author. Could use less big words.(WHOLE PACKAGE!)

1 -Catching Fire-Susanne Collins- Katniss and Peeta (the winners from previous hunger games)...is in for another time,betraying the most inportant rule. With Katniss "pregnat",getting married, and trying to stay alive....it wont be easy.(WHOLE PACKAGE!)...I just wish the story was a little more understandable.
